

LONDON BUSINESS GUIDE

Turkish Business Networking

The quality of the Turkish Business Circle in England is improving

Another business meeting of London Business Guide, which organizes business meetings under "Turkish Business Network" activities, was held on Tuesday night 28 March 2006, in the "Ishtar" Restaurant.

Approximately 85 distinguished guests and media representatives attended the function. Many British Business Organization's senior representatives, London Turkish Embassy and Consulate's representatives as well as Turkish Businessmen were among the distinguished guests who met and exchange information with each other, under a warm ambiance.

The Counselor of the Turkish Embassy Mr Atilay Ersan, the Vice-Consul of the Turkish Embassy, Mr. Sener Cebeci, the Turkish Labor Attaché Ms. Aysegül Yesildaglar, the President of the British Business Federation Mr Simeon Grosset, Prof. Mike Gibson from the LSBU, Mr. Adrian Tippe from Think London, the General Manager of the Turkish Bank Mr. Nafiz Girginok, the owner of the Star newspaper Mr. Hasan Sengöz, representatives of LTR, CENTA, Business Link,

BMED and Turkish Tourism Office, as well as many

British and Turkish Businesses directors were among the guests.

The Director of London Business Guide, "Turkish Business Networking", Mr. Abdullah Pehlivan stated the following: "Our aim is to bring the British Business organizations together with Turkish Businessmen and also to forward the problems and needs of the Turkish Businesses to the relevant authorities. In the very near future, our meetings aiming to build a business ground, will increase the development and quality of Turkish Business in the UK.

From now on, London Business Guide will organize regular "Turkish Business Networking" meetings, in order to meet and understand the Business potential and also to improve the quality of Turkish Businessmen living not only in the UK, but also all around Europe".

