

Turkish Business Directory UK-EU 2006-07. Additionally, BusinessLink, Train to Gain, Southwark Council, and representatives from LSC attended the Business Networking event by opening their stands.

The Dinner-Conference started with an opening speech by Abdullah Pehlivan, Director of the London Business Guide at 20:30 in the evening. The speeches are respectively followed by Atalay Ersan, Minister-Counsellor, Fatma Pehlivan, Senator from Belgium, Tuncay Ercenk, Turkish MP representing CHP's General Director Deniz Baykal, Claude Moreas, British MP & MEP, Nilgun Canver, a member of Haringey City Council, Ali Ozmen Safa, businessman who invested in the UK and Cyprus and last but not least, by Demet Sabanci Cetindogan, who invested successfully in Europe & Turkey, where they expressed their opinions and thoughts.

businessman in Europe award went to Aygun Efendi and presented by Fatma Pehlivan, Senator from Belgium. The most initiative organisation award was given to TurkishBank UK Ltd by Atalay Ersan, Minister-Counsellor. The most successful regional newspaper award was given to Avrupa Newspaper by Tuncay Ercenk, Turkish MP. Last but not least, the most successful scientist in the UK award was presented to Prof. Djamgoz by Nilgun Canver, member of Haringey City Council.

In the Award Ceremony, which constituted the final part of the conference, London Business Guide presented awards to businessmen and organisations as well as to scientists where they are deemed to be successful in Europe and UK. The following are individuals, organisations and businesses, which are deemed successful in year 2006 for their hard work and performance: Claude Moreas, MEP, presented the most successful entrepreneur Turkish Businesswoman award to Demet Sabanci Cetindogan. The most successful

